

March 10, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 10 March 2017

Last Updated Thursday, 09 March 2017

European cable in good health, despite small fall in TV subscribers

Videonet

The combined European cable industry is currently losing subscribers to satellite and IPTV (down 0.5% in 2016 compared to 2015) but that is the only (albeit ...

Delivering Internet Protocol Television

Broadband Technology Report

The switch to IPTV services is well underway for many operators. This webinar reviews some of the more common strategies for enabling IPTV as well as the ...

Verizon Digital Media Services and Pontis Technologies bring ...

Broadcasting & Cable

A leader in innovation in OTT, IPTV, cable and broadcast TV solution offerings since 2010, Pontis recently announced a rebrand of its corporate image and ...

Pay TV Market in Europe to 2020: Service Adoption and Market ...

Yahoo Finance

The report provides holistic historical and future prospects of Pay TV Service Penetration, Adoption by Technology (DTH/Satellite, IPTV and Mobile TV), ...

IPTV seller receives £250000 fine

IPPro The Internet

Malcolm Mayes has been sentenced to a 10 months in prison, suspended for one year, and fined £250,000 after admitting to selling modified IPTV boxes.

Your Kodi box could about to be BANNED after this new review

Essex Live

In a post about its consultation about Kodi Boxes, the IPO said: "Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) boxes (also known as set-top boxes, Android TV boxes or ...

Kodi crackdown: Premier League wins High Court order to block illegal streams

Ars Technica UK

"The new block will enable a proportionate and targeted restriction of content that would otherwise have been proliferated to unauthorised websites and IPTV devices," said the Premier League after it secured the court order from Mr Justice Arnold on ...