

March 30, 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 30 March 2017

Last Updated Wednesday, 29 March 2017

Sasktel Picks Ericsson for IPTV

Light Reading

SaskTel will start to implement the Ericsson MediaFirst solution suite this year, with plans to commercially launch its enhanced and expanded IPTV service in ...

Eurobites: Clouds Descend on Project Lightning

Light Reading

Also in today's EMEA regional roundup: MTN trials 4x4 MIMO; Telecom Italia concerned about its French connection; Ericsson lands Canadian IPTV deal; BT's ...

Free unveils 57 Chinese channels for viewers in France

Rapid TV News

... in partnership with technology developer Huawei as part of its Freebox IPTV ... in France to provide a triple-play service of telephony, broadband and IPTV .

Rostelecom records 1000 OTT users in Stavropol

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom said that the number of households using its 'IPTV 2.0' OTT service is approaching the 1,000 mark in the Stavropol region ...

Cord cutting is happening. No it's not. Yes it is. No it's not...

Network World

I practically kick myself every time our Verizon FiOS cable bill arrives because I still haven't acted on my intention to cut the cord in some way that won't drive my ...

TV Everywhere available to 72% of Europe pay-TV subs

Advanced Television

TV Everywhere (TVE) – effectively the ability for pay-TV customers to also watch traditional TV offers (DTH, cable, IPTV, terrestrial) on other screens such as PC, ...

iMedia's Linux-based Teatro-3.0 Solution Now Deploying on the ...

Yahoo Finance

... Smart TVs, as well as for OTT and IPTV boxes. Dubbed Teatro, these solutions are available for RTOS, Linux/HTML, and Android/Java and are pre-integrated ...

Verizon Begins Testing 4K TV for FiOS TV Service

DSL Reports

That overhaul will not only include completely new ONT and home gateway hardware, but an all-IPTV delivery system that will replace the company's existing ...