

April 27, 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 27 April 2017

Last Updated Wednesday, 26 April 2017

BCE reports wireless strength as IPTV, Internet subscribers slow

The Globe and Mail

He said BCE will offer the new product in areas where it has a licence for its Internet protocol television (IPTV) service, which are Ontario, Quebec, the Atlantic ...

Pre-installed software for piracy makes IPTV players illegal

IPPro The Internet

The Court of Justice for the EU (CJEU) has reached a decision in the highly anticipated case between Dutch anti-piracy group BREIN and multimedia player ...

KPN grows IPTV base

Broadband TV News

As of the end of March, the company had a total of 2,336,000 customers, of which 2,030,000 opted for IPTV. Its broadband subscriber total stood at 2,885,000.

SES Increases its Satellite Reach in Georgia by 21% in one year

The FINANCIAL

SES plays a key role in the market as it reaches 455 000 TV homes (including direct reach (DTH) as well as cable and IPTV homes), which represents a 5% ...

SES Rolls Out Their Ultra HD Solution in the US

SatNews Publishers

Additional cable and IPTV operators are also close to launching their own milestone Ultra HD services on SES's fully-managed, scalable system, which is aimed ...

Nokia, China Unicom kick off network trial based on Virtualized ...

FierceWireless

... Shandong and will expand to the other parts of the country over the next two years as it evolves to the next phase, which will include delivery of IPTV services.

Nokia Oyj (ADR) (NYSE:NOK), China Unicom (Hong Kong) Limited ...

Market Exclusive

It is worth noting that the evolution of the trial into the next phase will incorporate delivery of IPTV services. The head of IP Routing and Packet Core business at ...