

May 11, 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 11 May 2017

Ericsson MediaFirst platform to power SaskTel's IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

SaskTel will this year implement Ericsson's MediaFirst solution suite to power its new IPTV service. The Canadian operator plans to launch its enhanced and ...

PIPUL TV Signs N100m Broadcast Deal With Nigeria Nationwide ...

Wetinhappen Magazine (blog)

Nigerian-based Regional IPTV (Internet Protocol television (IPTV) service provider for West Africa, PIPUL TV, has signed a N100,000,000 broadcast rights ...

Rostelecom adds new TV channel for the children

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has added the Russian TV-channel O! to its IPTV offer. The educational channel is aimed at children aged 3-8.

AV and broadcast: shaping communication

Installation International

... McMurray considers the growing demand for broadcast-quality technology in live event settings, and the opportunity presented by the integration of IPTV and ...

Quickline taps Broadpeak for OTT TV service

DigitalTVEurope.net

... technology for its Quickline TV service, which delivers over 400 channels of live and on-demand content, as well as cloud DVR, to IPTV and OTT TV users.

Movistar+ leads Spain TV revenues

Advanced Television

Movistar+, Telefonica's IPTV platform, has become the largest TV operator in Spain in terms of revenues – ahead of both Mediaset and Atresmedia. According to ...

Movistar+ also offers 4K Champions League Final

Advanced Television

Telefónica's IPTV platform Movistar+ will broadcast the final of the European Champions League on June 3rd in 4K through Samsung smart TVs equipped with ...