

Nov. 5 2006 Daily News

Sunday, 05 November 2006

IPTV/VoD: The world that's on its way

Register - London,England,UK

Industry comment One of the most common questions operators and analysts are asked is whether IPTV will happen, and if it does, whether it will deliver its ...

Primetime makeover

Financial Express - Bombay,India

... The latest kid on the block is the internet Protocol or IPTV. ... Any telco with a unified access service line (UASL) can today offer IPTV services. ...

Legal Issues Arising From IPTV

Mondaq News Alerts (subscription) - London,UK

... 50 years on television programs are capable of being delivered by a number of different platforms including the Internet Welcome to Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) ...

Pakistan Telecommunications gets licence to launch IPTV operations

Gulf News - Dubai,United Arab Emirates

Dubai: Pakistan Telecommunications Company Limited (PTCL) has been awarded the first IPTV licence in Pakistan, the company said in a statement. ... Pemra awards first-ever IPTV licence to Ptcl

Khaleej Times - Dubai,United Arab Emirates

ISLAMABAD — The Pakistan Electronic Media Regulatory Authority (Pemra) has awarded the first Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) licence to the Pakistan ...

PTCL gets IPTV licence

AME Info - United Arab Emirates

PTCL, run by the UAE's Etisalat, has been awarded the first Internet Protocol TV licence in Pakistan, Khaleej Times reported. The ...

Regulatory Conflict Mars IPTV

EFYTimes - New Delhi,India

This limits operators from playing a leading role in the IPTV value chain. ... However, China's IPTV does not have a well-defined positioning either. ...

Star One, Star Gold to debut in UK this Nov-Dec

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri,Mumbai,India

... Earlier this week, Star had announced the launch of five Indian and two international channels in Japan on a new IPTV and community platform World on Demand ...