

June 27, 2017, Daily News

Tuesday, 27 June 2017

Last Updated Tuesday, 27 June 2017

For MCTV, IPTV Can Wait

Broadcasting & Cable

Though IPTV is being treated as an R&D project in greenfields, "eventually we believe that video is an app-based delivery that's all-IP, and maybe all unicast in ...

ACA, NCTA Again Urge FCC to Level Cable, Satellite Fees

CED

In a Thursday filing, the ACA asks the Commission to eliminate a disparity in regulatory fees for cable and IPTV providers and direct broadcast satellite providers ...

Cable TV operators facing challenges, media expert says

Taipei Times

The problem is that the nation's pay-TV industry, including Internet protocol television (IPTV) services, lack the necessary content and services to attract premium ...

Telekom Slovenije extends leads on mobile market in Q1

Telecompaper (subscription)

In terms of access technology, IPTV led with 52.2 percent (49.2% in Q1 2016), cable TV had 42.1 percent (45.6%), satellite/DTH accounted for 4.2 percent (3.6%) ...

Kodi users face crackdown over illegal add-ons

The Independent

"When we're working with the police against a company that's selling IPTV boxes or illicit streaming devices on a large scale, they have records of who they've ...

US pay TV business to lose 10.8M more subscribers by 2021 ...

FierceCable

... projections for the traditional pay TV industry, predicting that U.S. cable, satellite and IPTV operators will lose another 10.8 million customers by 2021. The total ...

?Jeff Kagan: Verizon Bet's Their Future on Oath

Equities.com

They have IPTV television called FiOS, but that has not seen growth in a while. So, now that the iPhone and Android growth wave is subsiding, where will growth ...