

Aug. 15, 2017, Daily News

Tuesday, 15 August 2017

Last Updated Wednesday, 16 August 2017

The Premier League's Latest Round of Blocking is Disrupting Pirate ...
Gizmodo UK

The Premier League has been fighting against the new waves of Kodi-enabled pirate IPTV streams for a while now, recently gaining a new temporary injunction ...

New Premier League Blocking Disrupts Pirate IPTV Providers
TorrentFreak

This weekend the Premier League began a new round of actions targeting illegal streaming. Reports reveal disruption at many IPTV providers, with some ...

The 4K Picture Gets Clearer for Cable
Multichannel News (blog)

At the same time, recent months have seen an encouraging evolution in 4K/HDR thinking by cable and IPTV operators who are beginning to trial and test 4K ...

Inexio to launch IPTV service in autumn
Telecompaper (subscription)

German broadband operator Inexio is planning to launch its own IPTV service this autumn. The company outlined the plans for the service called Quix in its ...

African Streaming Market Faces Shakeup as US-based Firm Seeks ...
Techfinancials.co.za (blog)

MatrixStream – a US-based vendor of HD streaming over the Internet IPTV solution provider – told Techfinancials this week that it was open to collaborations ...

Pay TV Video Encoders Market Projected to Garner Significant ... satPRnews (press release)

IPTV service is new as compared to the cable and satellite services. IPTV offers applications such as Video On Demand (VOD), games and interactive

...

?Jeff Kagan: AI Analyst Sees Growth Wave Accelerating
Equities.com

He follows wireless, wire line, telecom, Internet, cable TV, IPTV, Cloud, Mobile Pay, FinTech and communications technology. Email him at jeff@jeffKAGAN.com.