

Oct. 20, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 20 October 2017

It's all about wireless this quarter for Rogers, but subscriber-losing ...

Financial Post

The Toronto-based company originally tried to develop its own IPTV product to compete with Bell, but killed the project last year at the cost of $484 million to use ...

News of Note—IBM, MCTV, Nokia and the FCC

FierceCable

MCTV has launched an IPTV service that is powered by Espial's "Elevate" software-as-a-service platform.

Multichannel News article. > Blockchain often gets ...

Rogers' Comcast X1-powered IPTV platform will soft launch in Q1 ...

MobileSyrup

During Rogers' recent Q3 2017 earnings call the Canadian telecom giant revealed that its upcoming IPTV platform, which is set to be powered by U.S. telecom ...

Former USDA chief predicts rising consumer sway

Fairfield Ledger

JOHNSTON—Consumers, not lawmakers and regulators, may drive the debate over water quality and good farm production, according to a former U.S. ...

Verizon's OTT TV Service Delayed to Spring 2018: Report

Multichannel News (blog)

... form in May. Comcast, meanwhile, has opted for an in-footprint, managed IPTV service called Xfinity Instant TV that is targeted at "broadband-first" customers.

Rogers Comm. (RCI) Beats on Q3 Earnings, Misses Revenues

Nasdaq

We further believe that the company's plans to dump its Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) platform and adopt Comcast Corp's cloud-based X1 video platform have ...

Verizon posts Fios TV subscriber losses for third straight quarter

FierceCable

The IPTV operator has now lost 36,000 Fios TV customers in the first nine months of 2017. In the comparable third-quarter period of 2016, it gained 36,000 ...#