

Jan. 10 2007 Daily News

Wednesday, 10 January 2007

OECI Completes IPTV System Design for China Deployment

TVover.net - St. Louis, MO, USA

Tv Canada Inc. announced yesterday that the system design has been completed and equipment required to deploy the Company's first IPTV facility in China is ...

BSNL Preps for IPTV

Light Reading - USA

The country's other state-run carrier, Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Ltd. (MTNL) , launched IPTV services last November and signed IOL as one of three companies ...

SARFT Will Cooperate With Other Industries On IPTV

ChinaTechNews.com - Beijing, China

Zhu Hong, spokesperson from China's State Administration of Radio, Film and Television, announced that SARFT would like to develop IPTV services in ...

Microsoft hopes bet on IPTV pays off

Seattle Post Intelligencer - Seattle, WA, USA

Five telecommunications firms have entered the market using its underlying IPTV software, including AT&T in the United States, and British Telecom and ...

COMVIE Selects Latens FCAS For IPTV Security

broadcastbuyer.tv (press release) - London, UK

Latens Systems has been selected by Norway's COMVIE to provide Conditional Access security for its IPTV service launching in early 2007. ...

Cisco & Microsoft: IPTV War Ahead?

Light Reading - USA

Behind the scenes, Cisco is assembling a wide-ranging IPTV solution of its own, sources say. But it's got more work to do, and it is only just now bringing ...

Sigma Not Seen Benefiting From Xbox IPTV

Forbes - NY, USA

IPTV is television content that is distributed using Internet Protocol. "After speaking at length with both Microsoft and Sigma Designs (nasdaq: SIGM - news ...

Swisscom confirms more than 20000 IPTV orders

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten, Netherlands

Two months after market launch at the end of December 2006, more than 20000 customers have signed up for Swisscom's IPTV service Bluewin TV, ...