

Jan. 11 2007 Daily News

Thursday, 11 January 2007

Hands-on with IPTV on Xbox 360

engadget - Santa Monica,CA,USA

We had a chance to check out Microsoft's IPTV offering for Xbox 360, announced earlier this week during Bill Gates' CES keynote, and get answers to some of ...

Telekom Austria wins couple of thousand IPTV customers

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

Telekom Austria has won a couple of thousand customers for its IPTV service aonTV, eleven months after the commercial launch in Vienna, reports Austrian ...

BSNL Lines Up IPTV For Kolkata

EFYTimes - New Delhi,India

Under the IPTV service, subscribers will have 'triple play' connections — voice, data and TV — through one broadband connection. ...

Visiware releases IPTV game channel

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri,Mumbai,India

MUMBAI: Visiware has announced the release of its IPTV game channel, a turnkey solution with portals, back office and the Playin'TV catalog of casual games, ...

South Korea to launch commercial IPTV service

Asia-Pacific Broadcasting Union (press release) - Kuala Lumpur,Malaysia

South Korea will introduce commercial Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) services within this year, the nation's Information Minister Rho Jun Hyong has ...

Kasenna announces IPTV services innovation

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri,Mumbai,India

MUMBAI: The Indian arm of IPTV firm Kasenna Incorporated - Kasenna India today announced PortalTV 2.0, a suite of integrated products sporting a user ...

Microsoft's IPTV gains traction with telcos

Rocky Mountain News - Denver,CO,USA

Microsoft at CES announced it's ready to allow some telcos to begin offering its Xbox 360 game console as an alternative IPTV receiver and recorder. ...