

Jan. 26 2007 Daily News

Friday, 26 January 2007

IPTV has long way to go

Frederick News Post (subscription) - Frederick,MD,USA

Internet appliances can be hooked up to a TV set or software can be loaded on to laptop or handheld computers to watch IPTV. ...

Xbox 360 IPTV Interview - PVR functions on the way

PVR Wire - Glasgow,UK

GameVideos has an excellent interview on video (see below) with the two Microsoft execs Chris Satchell and Albert Penello, talking about IPTV on the Xbox360 ...

AT&T Confirms Software Snags in IPTV Rollout

xchange Magazine - Phoenix,AZ,USA

Glitches with some Microsoft Corp. software are at least in part responsible for the delay in the rollout of AT&T Inc.'s U-Verse IPTV-driven service bundle, ...

AT&T to ramp up IPTV's expansion

CNET News.com - San Francisco,CA,USA

CEO says new U-verse service is working better than expected, and the company plans to push IPTV more aggressively this year. By Marguerite Reardon ...

New IPTV news via IPTV-Anchor.com

Platinax - Clackmannanshire,Scotland,UK

A new IPTV news hub - <http://iptv-anchor.com> - allows anyone to distribute news captured on their cell phone or digital camera. ...

Ofcom Demands Rethink On BBC IPTV

Platinax - Clackmannanshire,Scotland,UK

Ofcom, the media regulator, has asked the BBC to review its plans for an on-demand IPTV service, due to concerns that it could damage rival commercial ...

France Telecom: 'More IPTV, Please'

Light Reading - USA

Benjamin Schwarz, the carrier's international IPTV projects manager who has helped France Telecom roll out Orange TV services in five countries, ...

WSJ: Microsoft Software To Blame For AT&T IPTV Delays

Telecommunications Magazine - Norwood,MA,USA

AT&T executives have made it clear that delays in the IPTV service were purely a result of software kinks and not network architecture problems. ...