

Mar. 4 2007 Daily News

Sunday, 04 March 2007

Analyst: IPTV war kicks off - with Apple likely being the big winner

MacDailyNews - USA

Don't you think Apple has got to have an advantage rolling out an IPTV product to its user base relative to either Microsoft or Sony? ...

IOL Broadband to soon offer 3 main bouquets on IPTV

Indiantelevision.com - Andheri,Mumbai,India

MUMBAI: IPTV service platform IOL Broadband has announced that it is set to offer the three main channel bouquets available in India - Star, Set-Discovery ...

Don't Count On VoD For IPTV Success, Warns PCCW

Telecommunications Magazine - Norwood,MA,USA

When Paul Berriman, the head of strategic market development at PCCW, gives his advice on IPTV rollout it's probably worth listening to. ...

DT Outlines Strategy, Eyes 1.5 Mln IPTV Subscribers by 2010

TVover.net - St. Louis,MO,USA

The network infrastructure is being rolled out further for IPTV and bundled (triple-play) services in 2007. Deutsche Telekom will give around 17 million .. IOL Broadband, India selects MagnaQuest for its IPTV Project

openPR (press release) - Hamburg,Germany

MagnaQuest Technologies signs up with IOL Broadband Ltd., India to deploy its Customer Management & Billing solution MQSubscribe® for IOL Broadband's IPTV ...

FastWeb founder turns his attention to Internet television and ...

International Herald Tribune - France

Babelgum and Joost differ from the IPTV offerings from phone carriers because the two start-ups stream their content over the open Internet, while IPTV ...