

May 18 2007 Daily News

Friday, 18 May 2007

Sri Lanka Telecom plans IPTV service launch

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

The IPTV service will require customers to have a 2 Mbps ADSL service. SLT currently offers ADSL in major cities and plans to expand its broadband network ...

UK's Dethroned Virgin Strikes Back At BT With DSL/IPTV

Telecomweb - USA

... has struck back with a deal with Cable & Wireless (C&W) that turns it into an xDSL and IPTV provider and doubles its potential geographic market. ...

Motorola Strikes Again In IPTV Battle: Buys MPEG-4 House Modulus

Telecomweb - USA

Motorola, in its fifth acquisition of an IPTV-related company in less than 18 months, is buying hot MPEG-4 Advanced Video Coding (AVC) startup Modulus Video ...

BSNL to offer IPTV in Hyderabad

Televisionpoint.com - Mumbai,Maharashtra,India

In the next three months, the state-owned Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) will offer Internet protocol television (IPTV) through its network in ...

Is the IPTV Market Driving a Telecom M&A Surge?

Seeking Alpha - New York,NY,USA

Further food for thought on that theme comes from a new iSuppli report predicting an M&A "surge" in IPTV-related gear.

...

The Great IPTV Race, Part 2

E-Commerce Times - USA

The great IPTV race is on, and the fielded is crowded -- and getting more crowded all the time. The biggest names in US TV broadcasting want to make sure ...