

July 2 2007 Daily News

Monday, 02 July 2007

MakTel to launch IPTV service in 2008

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

Macedonian fixed-telephony monopoly Makedonski Telekomunikacii (MakTel) is planning to compete against cable operators, by offering a package of 40-60 IPTV ...

Capitol Idea: IPTV Deserves Compulsory License

Broadcasting & Cable (subscription) - New York,NY,USA

By John Eggerton -- Broadcasting & Cable, 7/2/2007 12:40:00 PM Capitol Broadcasting has asked the Copyright Office to allow cable systems to be able stream ...

Calls grow for multi-platform PVR standard

VNUNet.com - UK

The company is calling for a single brand, similar to the recently-announced Freeview Playback standard, but extending across satellite, cable and IPTV in ...

IPTV Continues to Unfold

Voxilla.com - San Francisco,CA,USA

It's Fora's content that sets the company apart from the rest of the IPTV herd. You see, Fora's founder Brian Gruber thinks there just might be an audience ...

AARP, IPTV to host presidential candidate forums

WQAD - Moline,IL,USA

AP - July 2, 2007 6:04 PM ET DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) - AARP and Iowa Public Television will sponsor two presidential candidate forums this fall, ...

Leading IPTV region to host major conference and exhibition

IPTV News (press release) - UK

The two developing regions, alongside Europe, already accommodate 48 per cent of the world's IPTV market and significant growth is already planned as ...

IPTV Middleware Provider Espial Helping Telcos Lower TV Costs

TMCnet - USA

Espial also makes the IPTV applications which sit on the Evo Client platform, the article noted. Mahoney was quoted as saying that Espial's current revenue ...

Motorola Completes Acquisition of Modulus Video

CNNMoney.com - USA

As a result, Modulus Video's powerful MPEG-4 AVC encoders are now a critical component behind today's most compelling IPTV deployments around the world, ...