July 19 2007 Daily News
Thursday, 19 July 2007
Last Updated Thursday, 10 January 2008

Zattoo launches P2P IPTV service in Spain
IPTV News (press release) - UK
July 19, 2007 - Zattoo, the US-based peer-to-peer IPTV provider, has launched its service in Spain, paving the way for other European incursions into ...

Hype Cycle: phone convergence up, IPTV down
Guardian Unlimited - UK
Convergent telephones, ultramobile devices and "portable personality" are heading up to the "peak of inflated expectations" while IPTV, mobile TV and ...

UTStarcom to deploy IPTV solution for China Telecom in Ningxia
Interfax.cn (subscription) - China
INTERFAX-CHINA - Nasdaq-listed UTStarcom announced yesterday that it has won a bid to deploy its IPTV (Internet protocol TV) solution for China Telecom in a ...

GVT plans IPTV service for residential users
Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands
Brazilian broadband operator GVT will launch an IPTV service by the end of the year which will include movies and programming delivered to users by video-on ...

Nokia Siemens Networks wins contract to develop IPTV ...
IPTV News (press release) - UK
July 19, 2007 - Nokia Siemens Networks (NSN) has landed a contract with Oi, the largest fixed-line operator in Brazil, to develop an IPTV infrastructure. ...

Corbina Telecom unveils IPTV services
Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands
Russian cabler Corbina Telecom plans to launch IPTV services based on the Microsoft TV platform from December this year, CNews writes. ...

CompleteTV joins forces with Simply TV to deliver ISP-independent ...
IPTV News (press release) - UK
July 19, 2007 - UK IPTV technology specialist CompleteTV has announced that it is teaming up with set-top box platform provider Simply Global TV to offer a ...

Orca Interactive enters US IPTV market with first customer win
IPTV News (press release) - UK
July 19, 2007 - Orca Interactive, a leading Israeli developer of IPTV middleware and applications, has announced its entry into the US market and its first ...