

Aug. 28 2007 Daily News

Tuesday, 28 August 2007

Last Updated Wednesday, 16 January 2008

European phone companies push ahead on Internet television

International Herald Tribune - France

By Kevin J. O'Brien BERLIN: Several European phone companies this week plan to announce major expansions of Internet protocol television, or IPTV, ...

Nsight Telservices Deploys Nortel's End-to-End IPTV Solution

TMCnet - USA

By Anuradha Shukla Nsight Telservices is increasing entertainment options for its customers with an IPTV solution from Nortel (News - Alert). ...

Tech tiff won't slow expansion of IPTV

Shanghai Daily - Shanghai,China

China Netcom and SVA Group support the homegrown IPTV standard audio and video code standard, but Shanghai Media Group and China Telecom, which boast the ...

Low Current/IPTV Systems Engineer

- United Arab Emirates

Performing required activities in low current/IPTV operations and maintenance, personally or through subordinate technicians. This includes managing the ...

Comverse Looks Ahead To LatAm IPTV Deals

TMCnet - USA

Citing comments by Tim Phillips, Comverse general manager for IPTV (News - Alert) in the Americas, BNamericas is reporting that the company expects to sign ...

Over 17mn digital cable TV subscribers and 736000 IPTV subscribers ...

Connected Home News (press release) - Bristol,UKAugust 28, 2007 - There were 17.29mn subscribers to digital cable TV services and 736000 IPTV subscribers in China in the second quarter of 2007, ...

TVs, PCs fight for living room space at tech fair

Washington Post - United States

This year's IFA will include a day-long conference on IPTV, which is still being held back by limited broadband delivery capacity and content rights issues. ...

Verimatrix partners with SysMaster to deliver IPTV content ...

IPTV News (press release) - UKAugust 28, 2007 - Verimatrix has teamed up with SysMaster, a US-based supplier of IPTV products, to develop solutions that deliver IPTV content securely ...