

Jan. 20 2008 Daily News

Sunday, 20 January 2008

Last Updated Monday, 21 January 2008

Bharti Airtel signs $150 m deal with IBM

Business Standard - Mumbai,Maharashtra,India

... agreement with global IT major IBM for implementation of IT systems to launch differentiated services in broadband, media, IPTV and DTH segments. ...

MTS Allstream picks Alcatel platform for IPTV deployment

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

The service will be based on Alcatel-Lucent's Triple Play Service Delivery Architecture and Microsoft Mediaroom IPTV and multimedia platform. ...

We may need to float IPO, says BSNL chief

Business Standard - Mumbai,Maharashtra,India

To stop this attrition, we would be promoting broadband services and IPTV," Goyal added. BSNL has announced a free insurance cover up to Rs 50000 for its ...

IBM bags Airtel's DTH,IPTV biz deal

Economic Times - Gurgaon,Haryana,India

Through its partnership, IBM will implement IT systems that will enable us to launch differentiated services in thrust areas such as DTH and IPTV amongst ...

"IPO for BSNL may be required"

The Statesman - Kolkata,India

... the major revenue drivers for the company in the coming days would be mobile, broadband and other value added services like IPTV and VOIP. ...

21-01-2008: Penang leads in broadband penetration

The Edge Daily - Malaysia

This is the first region in the country to have IPTV service bundled with Streamyx packages. The launch officiated by Deputy Information Minister Datuk Seri ...

Alcatel-Lucent wins multi-year IPTV contract from Canada's MTS ...

Forbes - NY,USA

Alcatel-Lucent (nyse: ALU - news - people) said the IPTV service will be based on its Triple Play Service Delivery Architecture (TPSDA) and Microsoft ...