

Feb. 7 2008 Daily News

Thursday, 07 February 2008

Last Updated Thursday, 07 February 2008

NTT Com links shopping IPTV service to Rakuten's online mall

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

NTT Communications (NTT Com) has linked its IPTV service DoTV to Rakuten Shopping Mall, Rakuten's online shopping mall. DoTV, a free internet-based service ...

SingTel adds 13000 new IPTV subscribers in Q3

IPTV News - UK

The telco now has 55000 subscribers for its IPTV service, although so far only 27000 have been installed. SingTel said in a results statement: "Although not ...

Console vendors meet operators in battle for connected home

Telecoms.com (subscription) - London,UK

In conjunction with Sony, the Korean incumbent began allowing subscribers to access its IPTV service via their PS3s. Many other operators are expected to ...

BT's IPTV service has 150000 subs

Rapid tv news - London,UK

British Telecom's IPTV service has doubled its subscriber base in the past four months. BT Vision, its DSL-based IPTV service, has now signed up more than ...

France Telecom reaches 1.243mn IPTV subscribers

IPTV News - UK

February 7, 2008 - France Telecom has announced in its annual results that it reached 1.243mn subscribers for its IPTV service "Orange TV" at the end of ...

Teleste acquires Ortikon to strengthen IPTV solutions

IPTV News - UK

Teleste believes that this acquisition expands Teleste's provision of IPTV systems, and in turn enables Teleste to serve telecoms operators in addition to ...

Console vendors meet operators in battle for connected home

Telecoms.com (subscription) - London,UK

In conjunction with Sony, the Korean incumbent began allowing subscribers to access its IPTV service via their PS3s. Many other operators are expected to ...