

May 9 2008 Daily News

Friday, 09 May 2008

Last Updated Friday, 09 May 2008

UTStarcom wins United Telecoms contract for broadband network in Goa

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

IPTV and IP-based broadband and switching services specialist UTStarcom has been awarded a contract by India-based ICT services company United Telecoms to ...

IPTV to Increase its Share of the Western European Pay-TV households

TMCnet - USA

By Nathesh The Western European pay-TV market is likely to feel the impact of IPTV. Though considered a mature market, it will enjoy a reserved growth rate ...

Tiscali adds new cities to IPTV service

TeleGeography - Washington,DC,USA

Italian telco Tiscali said yesterday that it has now extended its IPTV service to a further six Italian cities, including Turin, bringing the total number ...

IPTV to Increase its Share of the Western European Pay-TV households

TMCnet - USA

By Nathesh The Western European pay-TV market is likely to feel the impact of IPTV. Though considered a mature market, it will enjoy a reserved growth rate ...

CopperGate Communications Ships Five Million IPTV Chipsets

TMCnet - USA

The HomePNA system helps service providers to integrate IPTV applications and triple-play services, helping those companies retain customers and make more ...

IPTV QoS Solutions Provider IneoQuest Hires Frank Summerfield as ...

TMC Net - Norwalk,CT,USA

The news follows IneoQuest's announcement in April that it has launched its Central European Cable and IPTV Technology Center in Rosenheim, Germany. ...

IPTV to push pay TV take-up in Europe

IPTV Watch - Nairn,UK

According to a new report by telecoms analyst, Analysys Mason, the roll-out of IPTV will drive the further adoption of pay-TV in Western Europe, ...

Strong growth for Croatian IPTV

Broadband TV News - London,UK

By Chris Dziadul Croatia's incumbent telco T-HT ended Q1 with 56000 subscribers to its MAXtv IPTV service, or 3.5 times more than the 16000 only 12 months ...