June 5 2008 Daily News
Thursday, 05 June 2008

Inuk Networks secures GBP 9.5 mln funding to expand IPTV service
Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands
IPTV company Inuk Networks has completed a GBP 9.5 million second round of funding, led by Welsh-language public service broadcaster S4C and venture capital ...

Bringing disruptive technology to the IPTV Market: the scalability ...
IPTV News - UK
As the subscriber base for IPTV services continues to grow significantly, the increasingly competitive converged market is opening up a new set of revenue ...

Latens partners with ZyXEL
IPTV News - UK
Both models offer IP video services, including standard-definition and high-definition, video on demand and IPTV, based on MPEG-4 AVC/H.264 compression. ...

The9 Wins to Operate Shanghai IPTV Gaming Channel
Marbridge Consulting - Beijing,China
According to an informed source, Chinese online game developer and operator The9 (Nasdaq: NCTY) has won the rights to operate Shanghai IPTV's gaming channel ...

"We're cheaper and better than DTH or cable"
Business Standard - Mumbai,Maharashtra,India
On June 3, Aksh Optifibre Ltd, a cable and optical fibre manufacturer, signed an agreement with the government owned BSNL to offer IPTV services to its ...

IPTV Startup Bags $18M
Light Reading - USA
NOON -- Newbridge Networks founder Terry Matthews and Welsh broadcaster S4C have jointly funded IPTV services startup Inuk Networks to the tune of £9.5 ...

Media: Kordia says hooray to Hollywood
New Zealand Herald - New Zealand
Orcon chief executive Scott Bartlett was proudly talking about potential for its new IPTV - programming downloaded off the internet - using new faster ...

UK IPTV Provider Inuk Networks Lands $18.6 Million
Digital Media Wire - Los Angeles,CA,USA
London - Inuk Networks, a provider of IPTV delivery services, announced on Thursday that it has completed an $18.6 million second round of funding, ...