

August 2 2008 Daily News

Saturday, 02 August 2008

BSNL ties up with COMPASS

The Statesman - Kolkata, India

In addition, Mr Chakravarty said, BSNL will relaunch a more attractive IPTV package despite broadcasters being reluctant to collaborate on content sharing. ...

BSNL to enter into direct agreement with broadcasters

Hindu - Chennai, India

Kolkata (PTI): State-run Bharat Sanchar Nigam is considering to enter into direct agreement with broadcasters to improve the acceptability of IPTV by masses ...

BSNL to enter into direct agreement with broadcasters

Press Trust of India - New Delhi, India

Kolkata, Aug 2 (PTI) State-run Bharat Sanchar Nigam is considering to enter into direct agreement with broadcasters to improve the acceptability of IPTV by ...

BSNL puts off IPTV launch by a year

Economic Times - Gurgaon, Haryana, India

KOLKATA: If you're still waiting for BSNL's already delayed IPTV service, you may be in for a rude shock. State-owned telecoms behemoth plans to take at ...

IPTV wait lengthens

Calcutta Telegraph - Calcutta, India

Calcutta, August 2: Viewers will have to wait till next year to access Internet protocol television or IPTV. "There are still some issues regarding ...

Opera joins the Open IPTV Forum

TechWhack (press release) - New Delhi, Delhi, India

Opera Software today announced that it has joined the Open IPTV Forum. This global organization is comprised of key IPTV and TV stakeholders working to ...

MediaG3, Inc. Signs China Broadband Wireless Implementation ...

MarketWatch - USA

, , ) , a leading developer for broadband wireless product and interactive rich-media content delivery applications, today announced that it has signed an ...