

Sept. 6 2008 Daily News

Saturday, 06 September 2008

Last Updated Saturday, 06 September 2008

BSNL eyes one lakh IPTV subscribers by fiscal end

TelecomTiger - New Delhi, India

BSNL is betting big on IPTV services. The PSU is now reportedly eying a subscriber base of one lakh subscribers for its IPTV services and also aims to ...

Samsung R&D team to hire 5000

Indiatimes, India

Samsung's future areas of work include WiMax and IPTV. Samsung is also carrying out hardware R&D in India to customise products for the Indian market. ...

Warner SVOD goes live on Fastweb

Broadband TV News, UK

Swisscom-owned Fastweb was the first company in the world to launch IPTV. It also offers standard VOD, linear and subscription TV channels Verimatrix Broadens Addressable Markets for Software-Based Content ...

PR-USA.net (press release), Bulgaria

Support for Digital Video Broadcasting (DVB) services can be seamlessly offered with the same pay-TV head-end architecture securing IPTV and hybrid networks ... Godrej eyes 10 % share in CTV market

TopNews, India

... Rs 9000-crore market in the next six to seven month period. In future, Godrej Appliances also plans to enter the market of IPTV, mobile phones and laptop.

Not all digital TV boxes are created equal

Sun-Sentinel.com, FL

If you subscribe to satellite, digital cable or telephone IPTV, you're already receiving a digital signal. But if you rely on over-the-air antennas (rabbit ...