

Jan. 6, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 06 January 2017

Last Updated Friday, 06 January 2017

Court dismisses 'damp squib' $350 million IPTV patent infringement ...

Financial Post

BCE Inc. has emerged victorious from a $350 million patent infringement lawsuit after the companies that accused it of infringing an IPTV patent admitted during ...

BCE, Inc. (NYSE:BCE) Valuation According To Analysts

UK Market News

The Company offers various services under the Bell and Bell Aliant brands, such as fiber-based Internet protocol television (IPTV) and high-speed Internet ...

WOW! clicks Universal Electronics for next-gen remote with Netflix

Rapid TV News

WOW! Internet, cable and phone (WOW!) has selected Universal Electronics (UEI) to develop and manufacture a cutting-edge remote control optimised for WOW ...

Free-to-air Services Market in EMEA is Projected to Touch US ...

PR Newswire (press release)

The growing demand for IPTV has given rise to a broader scope for internet advertising that is user-targeted rather than the generalized advertising available on ...

CenturyLink's Ewing: OTT video will drive future broadband ...

FierceTelecom

What's compelling about the OTT video product is that the telco can offer it in other areas where it does not offer its Prism IPTV service. CenturyLink's Prism ...

TRAI's new consultation looks to provide legal framework for net ...

MediaNama.com

The regulator is essentially pointing out to services like VoIP, IPTV, IoT services, enterprise communication services but however classifies this as services ...

Sigma launches G.hn chipsets developed with D-Link

Telecompaper (subscription)

The CG5300 G.hn chipsets are optimised for 4K video and IPTV distribution and advanced multicast systems. The chipsets were designed to be easily ...