Sept. 15, 2017, Daily News

Friday, 15 September 2017

BroadView IP launches hotel entertainment option
Hotel Management Magazine
BroadView IP launches BroadView Live, an alternative for hotel TV beyond cable, satellite and other hotel IPTV systems. It allows hospitality providers to bring ...

Econet Media unveils new IPTV service Kwesé Play
BizNis Africa
Econet Media, a pan-African broadcaster has announced the launch of its Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) service Kwesé Play, a video streaming service.

What's AT&T's Plan for Its Primetime Device?
Market Realist
Research firm SNL Kagan predicts that the US (SPY) pay-TV industry such as cable, satellite, and IPTV (Internet Protocol television) will shed 10.8 million ...

Global Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) with a focus on the Chinese ...
satPRnews (press release)
MarketResearchNest.com adds “Global And Chinese Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) Industry, 2017 Market Research Report”new report to its research database.

Transforming Video Services: Differentiated Solutions are ...
Business Wire (press release)
“Encompassing DTH, Cable, IPTV, Video on Demand (VOD), and over-the-top (OTT) distribution, this powerful package is bound together by the defining ...

CenturyLink Teams With French Firm for New OTT TV Service
Multichannel News
CenturyLink Stream, an OTT complement to the telco's managed IPTV service, Prism TV, that is available in and out of CenturyLink's wireline footprint, lets subs ...

Orange to offer Netflix to all its opcos
European Communications (press release) (registration)
Swisscom has picked Hewlett Packard Enterprise to replace legacy technology that runs part of its IPTV and OTT TV networks. HPE's Virtual Headend Manager ...